.. Kapila (Durga Khote) who falls in love with her.... Her life is further complicated by an arrogant young man who ignores her ... while her grandmother demands a large dowry ...and Panchali is obliged to give it ... a situation which forces her to choose between her real love and the dowry that her grandmother demands ... which leads her to seek help from the cruel and heartless Kapil... Panchali starts running away from Kapil but can he stop the train from reaching Lucknow ... and what will become of Panchali's future ... The film's music was composed by Hemant Kumar. Plot Panchali (Meena Kumari) travels from Kolkata to Lucknow. On the way, she meets Kapila (Durga Khote) who is her grandmother's (Kavita Seth) friend. Kapila asks Panchali to take care of her. Kapila falls in love with Panchali and Panchali, in turn, loves Kapila. The aristocratic and egoistic Kapil (V. N. Sen Gupta) realises that his cousin (Meena Kumari) loves him and becomes jealous. He plans to take revenge. Panchali travels to Lucknow in the same train. There, Kapila announces that Panchali will marry Kapil. On the way back, Panchali learns that her grandmother has died. Kapila also realises that she loves Panchali. Kapil, who is also furious, comes to the station and attempts to throw the train from the track. The guard stops him. Panchali confesses her love to Kapil and promises to marry him, but Kapil is reluctant. Panchali pleads Kapil to love her and takes him to her home. In the meantime, Kapil enters the house and becomes jealous of Panchali's affection for Kapila. He is also shocked that Kapila loves him. Panchali is shocked at the situation and asks for Kapil's love. Kapil sends Panchali to her room, but she does not return. Kapila, who is in love with Kapil, takes revenge. She plants an explosive on the train which she thinks was Kapil's hand. Kapil arrives at the station but the train reaches Lucknow. Panchali realizes what Kapil has 82157476af
